Agreed to Disagree.

A mutual understanding has been reached between Frank C. Bufort and his wife, which is to the effect that they will separate. The latter will retain their house in this city, and the former proposes to go to his farm in Florida. Bufort is the Government clerk who ten days ago drove his wife out of the house and strapped bis child up to the bed-post. Judge Miller has had this case under consideration since that time, and he hardly knew what disposition to make of it. With the understanding that Bufort was to try to control bis almost ungovernable temper and leave the city he was permitted to go on his

For The Lee Bill,

A Gala Affair,

The Washington and Georgetown street-car conductors' and drivers' ball will take place to-night over the new power-house at the foot of Seventh street. Elaborate preparations have been made for the event, and the hall will be illumined with forty-six incan descent electric lights. The hall has been decorated with several hundred flags and the Marine Band will furnish the music.

Old Comrades Meet, The Medal of Honor Legion met last night at Colonel M. A. Dillon's, No. 53, B street northeast. Comrade Leonard Karpless was elected to membership and made surgeon general of the legion. The legion will hold an encomponent in Boston on August 11, the same time as the G. A. R. holds its en campment, and will have their head-quarters at the Adams House.

A Female Crook.

In the Police Court yesterday afterneen Lillie Mason was sent to jail for thirty days for the larceny of $21 from Eva Johnson. Both were employed as servants at 713 Fourteenth street northwest, and occupied the same room. Detective Mahon traced the matter up, and Lillie admitted to him that she was guilty of the theft.

A Call to Preach, The Rev. Peter Roberts has received a call from the congregation of the Tabernacle Congregational Church, South Washington. He occupied the pulpit last Sunday and made a very favorable impression. He is a young man and comes from Scranton, Pa.

A Singer's Benefit,

George D. Scott had a testimonial benefit last night at the National Rifles' Armory, which was well attended. The entertainment consisted of literary and musical exercises. R. F. Cardella was pianist and the accompanists were Mrs. G. D. Parsioe, H. F. Batter, S. H. Jecks and C. T. McEhauey.

deeply and moved on.

Hop of the Calumet Club, Young folks took possession of G. A. R. Hall Tuesday night and for five hours had a thoroughly enjoyable time. The occasion was the first compli-mentary hop of the Calumet Club, a social organization that has only come into existence this season but which promises to be among the most popular in the city. Although dancing was be-gun as early as 8:30 it was long after midnight before the familiar strains of "Home, Sweet Home" reluctantly brought a reminder that the hour for parting had come. The success of the affair has already created a demand for a ball on a larger scale by the Calumets next season. Among the many present

A Policeman Resigns.

Officer J. F. Caverly yesterday tendered his resignation as a member of the force. He did not respond to roll call last night and it is thought he has left the city. Financial difficulties are alleged to be the cause of his sudden departure. He is indebted to the Police Department for his winter uniform and also for fines imposed, and there are a number of tradesmen to whom he owes noney. He collected his month's salary yesterday and disappeared.

Y M. C. C.
